WAITING LIST AND FILLING OPEN SPOTS ON TEAMS

Entry shall be for the entire team, and at registration all team members and player information must be complete to secure a registration number. The following rules for teams losing players after registration (incomplete teams) are adopted for 2023:

- a. Three weeks (May 9) prior to the start of the tournament, the professional may ask the WWC Executive Director for one player to help fill his team. The Director will assign the highest ranking professional on the waiting list who chooses to abandon his/her own team to join the team needing a player. If there are no professionals waiting to play, or none who choose to abandon their team, the highest priority amateur (on a first to call-in basis) on the wait list will be assigned. The Director will only furnish one player to any team.
- b. After the entry deadline (May 14), the professional (and team) of any incomplete team will be placed at the top of the wait list and be replaced in the field with the highest professional on the wait list having a full team.

c. Notwithstanding the above rules, the Director may assign a waiting list professional or amateur to any team that loses a player within the week prior to the tournament.

d. No professional may add into a team more than once every four years. No professional shall add a professional to his team more than once every four years. No team shall have, under any circumstance, more than two professionals among its players.
